

Notice of nondiscrimination and accessibility

Seattle Cancer Care Alliance (SCCA) complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex. SCCA does not exclude people or treat them differently because of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex.

SCCA provides:

- Free aids and services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us such as:
 - Qualified sign language interpreters
 - Written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, other formats)
- Free language services to people whose primary language is not English, such as:
 - Qualified interpreters
 - Information written in other languages

If you need these services, contact Interpreter Services at 1 (855) 670-9798.

If you believe that SCCA has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex, you can file a grievance with Patient Relations at (206) 606-1056. You can file a grievance in person or by mail, fax, or email. If you need help filing your grievance Patient Relations is available to help you.

You can also file a civil rights complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Office for Civil Rights, electronically through the Office for Civil Rights Complaint Portal, available at <https://ocrportal.hhs.gov/ocr/portal/lobby.jsf>, or by mail or phone at:
